

RECONFIGURATION

Common Queries from Schools

What does reconfiguration mean?

Reconfiguration is a process which allows schools with a denominational ethos change to having a multi-denominational ethos.

How long is the process?

The process is tailored to the needs of each school community with no pressure to adhere to a set timeline.

What supports are available to the BOM?

Our dedicated Reconfiguration Officer will support the BOM and school community at each stage of the process.

What is involved in the reconfiguration process?

The entire process is based on consultation with the various stakeholders within a school community, with ample opportunity to share information and exchange views.

Who manages the process?

The Board of Management retains full ownership of the process. The BOM will approve an action plan, lead the consultation process and take any necessary decisions regarding reconfiguration.
